- Pirates Deny That Wagner Will Be Swapped to Cincinnati.
- PITTSBURGH, Pa., November 30.—Information from Cincinnati that a deal is on between Pittsburgh and Garry Herrmann for the transfer of Hans Wagner to that city in exchange for Hobbittz and Cacher Tom Clark angered owners of the Pittsburgh club yesterday and caused them to issue denials. The story was that Carl Kruger of Cincinnati had received a letter from Tom Clark in which the catcher wrote that he had been given to understand both himself and Hobbittz were to be traded to Pittsburgh for Wagner, etc.
- "These players are humbugs when they start to write letters to each other," said Secretary Will A. Locke of the Pirates this afternoon. "I've no doubt Mr. Clark or Cincinnati wrote that to his friend, but they usually write something when they communicate with each other, but their kindness they don't all have such dreams as this. Clark is actually funny. His joke is the best one of the season. So we are trading Wagner for Hobbittz and Eli, Huh."
- Norther Locke nor any other member of the directorate of the Pittsburgh club volunteered any denial that Wagner might be disposed of to some club, however.
- "They talk of making radical changes in the Eastern National League among the additions and improvements, it is understood, will be a new park, a new president, a new manager and a new ball team."

PAL MOORE AFTER ATTELL'S CROWN By Tad

ATTELL AND MOORE TO FIGHT TONIGHT
Philadelphia Youth Believed to Have a Good Chance Against Champion.

BOSTON HAS BIG GAP. TO FILL AT FIRST
Jake Stahl's Retirement Will Put Red Sox in a Deep Hole.

NEW YORK, November 30.—Tonight, at the Fairmont A. C. in the Bronx, Abe Attell, featherweight champion of the world, will fight. The word fight is used, Attell's opponent is to be Pal Moore, the "Philadelphia Phantom." Moore ended his training at Jimmy De Forest's camp at Allentown, N. J., last night in the pink of condition, and when Pal is in that kind of shape he is capable of making any boxer hustle to keep up with him.

There are those who are slightly of the opinion that Mr. Attell carries a little more than he needs in the way of years gone by. One of these is Jimmy De Forest, manager of Moore, who has been in the ring since the start to carry his adversary along at such a rate of speed that if Attell is not a grand combatant, he will tire before the onslaught of his youthful assailant.

Nearly all Attell's opponents have allowed Attell to set the pace, and at this the feather champion is a champion indeed. But it will be different with Moore, the pacemaker this evening, and it is a well known fact that the Philadelphia, under the guidance of his manager, has fought through ten rounds at an astounding pace.

Attell can defeat Moore, then, if he will show that he is a second Gans in his toughness, for not even his intimate friends believe that he can "stand the graft" to use the parlance of the ring. Figuring on recent past performance, the only things that can be figured on in a case of this kind, Attell at best will have a very close shave.

Moore's extreme youth, Moore is not a fighter to become discouraged if Attell "makes a monkey out of him" in the early rounds of the bout, for he has met clever men before, and while they have outpointed him at the start, he has never been beaten by any of his antagonists.

There will be a case of an experienced boxer against a clever, ambitious, eager fighter, and, no matter how the affair terminates, it should be a good contest.

There has been in the game too long to last much longer, and it would not be surprising if he met his Waterloo at the hands of Pal Moore in New York tonight. The turning point in Attell's career was predicted some time ago, yet he has continued to win several bouts in the meantime, though experts contend that he is doomed to be going back in the end. He meets a younger and very agile opponent, and a defeat for Attell would not be surprising.

There is quite a difference in ball towns. In some localities the fans are more enthusiastic and appreciative than in others, and judging from the hard time a Philadelphia paper is having trying to get the followers of the world's champion to subscribe to a fund to buy Eddie Collins an automobile there are a cold lot of fans in that town.

It is quite different here. When Walter Johnson established a new strike-out record it did not take long to get up a five-hundred-dollar purse or him, and yet though they have been working for two months and printing an invitation for subscribers every day, the fund has not yet been started.

There is a difference in the attitude toward the Collins automobile fund, and much for the Athletics as did Johnson for the Nationals.

Eighth Game Again Adjourned, With a Draw Likely.

BERLIN, November 30.—D. Janowski of Paris and Dr. Emanuel Lasker resumed play in the eighth game of the championship chess match at the Kerkur palace in this city yesterday afternoon. The game had to be adjourned again, however, as it was expected that this expert would be able to score a game at last.

In this expectation, however, the spectators were disappointed, Janowski, a sixty-six moves having been recorded so far. Moreover, Lasker managed to perfectly equalize matters yesterday's action, and no more than a draw will be the likely result. The present score: Lasker, 4; Janowski, 0; drawn, 3; adjourned, 1.

Nap Rucker, the Dodgers' crack south-paw, had a narrow escape from a watery grave a few days ago. Rucker, with a party of friends, was duck-hunting on Bull Slough Lake, Ga., when their boat turned turtle and spilled them into forty feet of water. All were rescued with difficulty.

WANTS ALL BASE BALL AFFAIRS ADJUSTED

Owner Ebbets Talks on Changes in Rules That Should Be Made.

MINOR LEAGUES HAVE CAUSE FOR DISSATISFACTION

Believes Clubs Which Develop Players Should Be Well Paid for Them.

NEW YORK, November 30.—"I am thinking more about what position the Superiors will occupy in 1911 than I am who will be president of the National League of that season," declared Charles Ebbets of the Brooklyn club. "The object of my journey to Chicago recently was not, as some of the Windy city scribes thought, and as appeared to be the impression of the base ball writers in the east, to talk to James A. Hart, former president of the Chicago National League club, about running for the presidency of our league against Thomas J. Lynch next month."

"I hoped to see Hart when I was in Chicago, because he and I are old friends, but had I met him I would not have asked him to become a candidate for the presidency of the National League, nor would I have promised him the vote of the Brooklyn club in case he came to me and asked me for my support."

"I myself have been dissatisfied with certain conditions in base ball, and while I have not found out all the reasons that made the eastern leaguers and the American Association managers desire a higher classification, I think I learned a little while out in Chicago and made bold enough to place my opinion before the

PRIZE FIGHTS IN OAKLAND BARRED

SAN FRANCISCO, November 30.
—There is no in the camp of the Oakland fight "fans," for the prize fight in Oakland and Alameda county has received a knockout blow. No more prize fights will be permitted in the county. The district attorney has said so, and the grand jury stands behind him to enforce the mandate. If a prize fight should be pulled off but only with the principals, he indicated, but the spectators as well. A prize fight in Alameda, according to the grand jury, is a contest in which one of the contestants is knocked out.

Mayor Mott and Superintendent of Police Wilson say they will back up the grand jury and district attorney.

SPORTING COMMENT.

BY J. ED GRILLO.

For the first time in its history the National League is giving indications of an awakening. The announcement that it is the intention to elect Thomas J. Lynch for a period of three or five years will indeed be a step forward. For years there has been a wrangle among the club owners of the old circuit regarding the presidency, a position which had to be filled every year. Every time a club owner found that his team had lost a game by reason of a decision which he deemed to be a step forward, for years there has been a wrangle among the club owners of the old circuit regarding the presidency, a position which had to be filled every year.
